Dear Darren Lee Neuschwander:

The California Board of Accountancy (Board) has received your California Practice Privilege Notification Form. Based on your certification that you hold a current and valid CPA license from ALABAMA and the self-certified qualifications you submitted, you have PRACTICE RIGHTS without ATTEST under the California Practice Privilege.

Please note that your California Practice Privilege is not a CPA license but is a temporary privilege to practice public accountancy in California. Your California Practice Privilege expires on 1/25/2008. If you wish to continue practicing public accountancy under the California Practice Privilege after this date, you must obtain a new California Practice Privilege by resubmitting a Practice Privilege Notification Form prior to or on the expiration date listed above. Upon submission of a Practice Privilege Notification Form, a California Practice Privilege is valid for a maximum period of one year.

Your practice rights in California can be verified through the Board's online Web lookup feature at https://www.cba.ca.gov/ppns_search. If you have any questions, please contact the Board's Practice Privilege Unit at (916) 561-1704 or at pracpriviinfo@cba.ca.gov.

Sincerely,

Liz Taylor
